MidnightShift Probably where my money went... nowhere useful. 🙄

LoopedInAgain I blink and you've taken another 20 minutes off me 😏

ElliotXtra Nahhhh but real talk... you're draining me 🤔

StillHereForSomeReason Lost another year to you. Wild. 🤔

Nic-Oh You say that.... but you're all still here 🤔

Noooo you're taking too much money from me!!

I don't even want to be here 🙄 but I can't leave.

I swear I felt better before I met you, but now I just feel drained all the time...

I missed so much because of you. 🙄

Didn't I unfollow you?

My friends literally hate me being around you.

Nic-Oh: You keep saying you'll leave... but you never do. We both know why.

WHO IS NIC-OH?

Nic-Oh is an addiction.

Nicotine.

HOW NIC-OH HOOKS YOU

- Nicotine is the ultimate influencer—it tricks your brain into thinking you need it.
- It hijacks your brain's reward system, making you crave more, even when you don't want to.
- It convinces you that quitting is impossible—but that's just the addiction talking.
- It makes you feel like life is better with it, but in reality? It keeps you hooked.
- You don't follow Nicotine—Nicotine follows you.

SIDE EFFECTS OF NIC-OH?

Mental Health: Anxiety, irritability, insomnia, restlessness.

Physical Health: Tired all the time, feeling drained, struggling to focus

Social Life: Missing out, stepping away from friends, feeling excluded.

Financial Impact: Spending money that could go toward things that matter.
